REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-4 are allowed over the prior art of record.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance of claim 1 and its extended claims is the claimed subject matter regarding "a timing of a rise of an air intake in which the quantity of air increases as an intake stroke of the internal combustion engine progresses and a timing of a fall of an air intake in which the quantity of air decreases as the intake strokes progresses are determined from the quantity of air and the increases and decrease thereof, and a fuel injection quantity is calculated by multiplying a predetermined constant by a quantity of air that is taken in during a period from the timing of the air intake rise until the timing of the air intake fall" which the prior art of references did not disclose.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
